Aisc.com Privacy Policy

Artemis International Solutions Corporation ("Artemis") helps both private and public sector organizations select, budget, prioritize, execute and control investment programs to ensure a balanced project portfolio that is constantly aligned with strategy. In pursuit of that goal, we respect and protect the privacy of those who visit our web site.

This policy sets out the privacy practices for Artemis web sites, including what type of information is gathered and tracked, how the information is used and with whom the information is shared. We want to give you the comfort and confidence you need to fully participate in our online offerings so that we can better serve your needs.

Because of the nature of our products and business, our Web sites are not designed to appeal to children under the age of 13. Therefore, we don't knowingly attempt to solicit or receive any information from children.

1. Personal Information

In general, you can visit us on the internet without telling us who you are or giving us personal information. There may be occasions when we will ask you for information that personally identifies you (Personal Information) or allows us to contact you. Generally this information is requested when you are asked to register before receiving/downloading free software, multi-media product demonstrations, brochures, data sheets or white papers, employment applications or under other various circumstances such as occasional special promotions or contests. We intend to let you know how we will use such information before we collect it from you; if you tell us that you do not want us to use this information to make further contact with you beyond fulfilling your requests, we will respect your wishes. If you give us personal information about somebody else we will assume that you have their permission to do so.

6. Other Artemis Web site Notices

In some cases, specific Artemis web sites may contain other notices about their use and the information practices applicable to those sites.

7. Artemis Worldwide Practices

Artemis is a global organisation, with legal entities, business processes, management structures and technical systems that cross borders. Our privacy policy is designed to provide protection for your personal information, all over the world. We may share your personal information within Artemis and transfer it to countries in the world where we do business.

8. Current Information

We will provide you with the opportunity to update or ensure that your personal information is correct and current by calling our marketing department at 1-800-477-6648.

9. Security

We work to protect personally identifiable information from unauthorized access using commercially available computer security products, such as firewalls, as well as carefully developed security procedures and practices. All employees must review and sign these practices which include limiting access to sensitive information only to those employees who require the information. With these measures, aisc.com strictly protects the security of your personal information to keep us from using or sharing the information you provide for purposes other than to fulfill your request or specific intended use. We carefully protect your data from loss, misuse, unauthorized access or disclosure, alteration or destruction. We do not sell private information you provide regardless of how such information is gathered.

10. Links to non-Artemis Web sites

The aisc.com web site may provide links to third party sites, such as those of our Partners. Artemis is not responsible for the privacy practices or the content of those other Web sites or for the actions of these third parties. You should review their privacy policy to learn more about what and how they collect and use private information.

11. Date of last changes

This privacy statement was last updated on 24th March 2005.

12. Enforcement

If for some reason you believe aisc.com has not adhered to these principles, please notify us by calling 1-800-477-6648 and ask for the marketing department. We will do our best to determine and correct any problem promptly. To ensure your request is properly addressed be sure to identify your problem as a privacy policy issue.
